

SWALLOWFIELD SUMMER DRESSAGE SERIES

Swallowfield Equestrian held a very popular summer dressage series, which was very kindly sponsored by Astwood Equine Osteopaths of Astwood Bank, Redditch.

The championships brought the successful summer series to an end on Sunday 17th August. Competitors were able to qualify for the Championships with a top 6 placing during the series. Astwood Equine very kindly donated beautiful rosettes to the top 10 finalists with a rug to the winner, and treatment vouchers went to the top 6 finalists. A beautiful glass trophy was presented to the highest percentage of the day, which went to Jenny Salisbury and Born Fighter. This combination is in their first competitive season together. Below, Andrew, Melanie and Miranda Marling present Jenny with her prizes.
